BE THYSELF,

BY GASKELL.

Look well around thee, man and say, Wilt thou throw thy hour away, While there is so much to do, Fighting sin and sorrow too? In search of pleasure, resping wee, The rightful inth of seed we saw; For wherever sun is found, Fear and pain and wee abound.

Is rosy morn of life so gay,
Like bright and peaceful summer day,
The moments gide in happy dream,
On, like gently flowing stream,
No thought then in the youthful heart,
Of sin, or sorrow, pain or smart;
We sow to resp in future flaids,
The sorrow that our folly yields.

In happy ignorance the play,
Of fancy's bright, poetic way,
Gi'ds all of life in magic glow,
Of plessures soft and gentle flow—
But then there comes the waking hour,
When no longer fait the nower
Of youthful v gor, and decay,
Sweeps all our idle dreams away.

Prepare ye then in morn of life,

Fropare ye times in morn of life,
To battle with unboly strife,
To breast the wild and impious flow,
Of sin and sorrow here below,—
To aid the weary, fainting heart,
To ever act insellish part,
To aid the weak, to brave the strong,
Combating ever sin and wrong. But in this battle with thyself, Ne'er yield identity for pelf; If but formed for humble part, To act in life, look to thy heart,

That it be pure, nor thou the views, Opinions of another choose; But be thyself, in simple guise, Judging men's acts with truthful eyes. ENTHUSIASTIC YES.

BRITISH ELECTIONS. Grand Triumph of Liberals.

Grand Triumph of London, 2.—G. W. E. Russel, liberal, for Aylesbury, is elected instead of Sanuel G. Smath, conservative, as previously announced. The liberals gain a reat in each of the following places: Gravesend, Scarborough, Salisbury, Gravesend, Scarborough, Salisbury, rest in each of the following places: Gravesend, Scarborough. Salisbury, Warcham, Warrington and Marylebone. Home rulers galo in Newross, H. Broadhurst, liberal, for Stoke-upon-Trent. This constituency was filled in the last parliament by the famous Dr. Knealy, who was elected on independent principles, and by Robert Heath, conservative. Liberals gain the following seats: Christ Church, Shaftsberry, York city, Stafford, Maskelyne, and Stoke-upen-Trent. The representation from Glasgow is relatively unchanged. Conservatives gain a seat in Brandon.

Brandon.

Labouchese, liberal, for Northampton and the election of Bradlaugh for this constituency, previously annuanced, may be considered a liberal gain of two.

The These, in a leader on the elections, be considered a liberal gain of two.

The Times, in a leader on the elections, tays: The first question which arises is what will be the composition of the cabinet? Lord Hartington, in a recent speech, seemed to imply that it was in some degree an open question who would be liberals. It will be for Lord Beaconsfield to advise the Queen who is to be official chiefs. The parliamentary leader of liberals is Lord Granville, who has every claim on the ground of past services, rank and ability to become premier. Lord Hartington will hold an important position in the cabinet and will lead his party in the House of Commons.

mons.

The Standard, in its leading editorial, says: It would be useless to ignore the question whether liberals will be in possession when Parliament meets. The opposition has realized a caver gain of fifty seats. The Standard then points out that there is yet no ground for supposing that the liberal enjority will prove independent of the home-rule vote.

Bispatches from Paris, Berlin, Vienna and Rome represent that disappointment and invasiness are felt in these capitals at the success of the liberal party in Great Britain, while at St. Petersburg the news is received with the utmost delight.

to the remotest parts of the city, much to the health and convenience of every householder. Reservoirs will be built for this purpose. We shall want all the canal to irrigate our city lots, to produce choice fruits and well-maturest vegetables, shade trees and beautiful odoriferous plants and flowers, to strengthen the physical system and gladden ite five senses. There is untold wealth in this canal.

I would suggest the expediency of securing the land, by purchase, if possible, from the government of the United States, o'er which the fresh waters of Utah Lake roll in gentle waves.
